

HYDRAULIC SERVICE MECHANIC

Credential Issued:

ITA Certificate of Apprenticeship (Hydraulic Service Mechanic)

Occupational Description:

“Hydraulic Service Mechanic” means a person who repairs, maintains, adjusts hydraulic units such as hoists, rams, jacks, lifting units and pumps.

Program Duration & Structure:

The program entails work-based training only, and will generally take 5 years to complete.

The program includes:

- In-school: n/a
- Work-based: 9,000 hours

Program Completion Requirements:

Completion of 9,000 workplace hours:

- Sponsor attestation

Program Challenge Requirements:

n/a

Program Pre-requisites:

- Recommended Education: Grade 10 or equivalent including English 10, Math 10, and Science 10. Preferred: Grade 12

Assessment Methods:

- Work-based assessments (practical)

Linkages to Other Credentials:

n/a

Program Standards Documentation:

n/a

Industry Program Standards Mechanism:

TBA

Program Providers:

n/a

Technical Training Content:

n/a

Approved: March 2002 (ITAC)

Updated: January 2006 (ITA)